Board Meeting Minutes September 13.2022

submitted by - Annette Meyer- Grunow

In attendance: Betty L, Rosellen RE, Annette MG, JoAnn C

Betty stated, that she digitized old slides about antique quilts, maybe from 1990. They came from clearing out the costume room. She will contact several persons, that might have info, including Linda Hunter. She offered to digitize slides, as she has three more weeks to work with this application.

Rosellen will collect stubs for the raffle quilt raffle. JoAnn will collect them from her. The drawing will be in the afternoon of October 1. Time to be determined at the Guild meeting September 15.

At the Sept guild meeting we will determine if we will have a dinner somewhere remote or have a party at the museum, has to be agreed on by the museum as it is registered as a remote meeting for us.

Linda and Theresa should get an invitation to the next board meeting. Reason: more info about the slides and the nomination of new officers; news? about the committee that talked to the museum director.

Annette suggested to sell two quilt tops, that were started by Jacquie Groszkowski, to offset the batting cost. Other suggestion: raffle them off at the December party.

Rosellen talked to Arlesa Shephard about the program on Thursday 9.15.2022. If the guild meeting takes place, she will come. If the meeting is cancelled, she agreed to come at a different date.

Minutes of the August 15 Meeting

19 members present.

The Program , History of American Fiber from 1740-1900, was presented by Arlesa Shepherd PhD of the Textile and Design Department at Buffalo State. Extremely interesting for the quilters.

Raffle Quilt Initially the 2019 raffle quilt ticket (delayed by Covid) was to be drawn on Zoom on October 1. Due to complications of setting up a Zoom drawing up on the Web for the entire membership it was the consensus of the member that we would ask Better Lerner, president, and JoAnn Castiglia, treasurer, to conduct the drawing and let the membership know who won the quilt.

Nominations. Thresa Utz presented the following slate of officers:
Election of these officers will be at the November general membership meeting.

President: Sally Ginsberg
Treasurer: JoAnne Klelsch
Hospitality: Linda Hunter

Ukrainian Project. Mary Ellen Cannon reported that $915 has been raised with the raffle quilt projects that we made to support the Ukrainian refugees. Because the Harvest Festival was cancelled due to Covid amongst the Museum staff, the festival was rescheduled for this weekend, We still have six lap size quilts to raffle. A motion was made by Theresa Utz and seconded by Linda Hunter that if the remaining quilts did not bring the amount to $1000 that the guild donate the difference.

Sunshine Sue Teetsel fell and broke her femur. This in addition to recent knee replacement and a broken ankle a year ago. Sue is home now. JoAnn Kelch was in Scotland and was at Balmoral Castle when the Queen died. She was part of the crowd who watched the Queens casket leaving Balmoral.

October Meeting October Meeting will be held on Thursday October 13. Please bring your quilt related Christmas ornaments and wall hangings to share. If you have a family heirloom ornament, please bring that and relate its history to your family. If the ornament is a project from the web, please bring the addresses. Patterns would be nice too

November Meeting is the election of officers.

December Meeting will be at a restaurant to be determined by Rosellen and Annette.

Minutes of the Oct 4 board Meeting

Present: Betty L, Annette M-G, JoAnn C, Lori R, Linda H, Joanne G, Sally G, Theresa Utz

1. Betty: has the president's materials ready for Sally.
2. Lori R moved that we purchase a year's subscription for Zoom to cut the pressure to complete business in an hour. Seconded by JoAnn C. Carried.
3. Treasurer will mail out report for this month.
4. The winner of the quilt raffle (Carol Clothier) picked up her quilt. The raffle made $1000.

5. Holiday Dinner: Dec 15 at 6:30 at Rizzoto's on Maple. Rosellen moved that the member pays $10 and the guild will pick the rest of the cost ($30+). Seconded by Annette. Reservations are due by Nov 30. Money will be collected by Annette and Rosellen.

6. Rosellen: Nov. meeting will feature Pam Pandolphi Trunk Show and the Jan. meeting Jim and Wally on sewing machine maintenance (DAY MEETING)

7. Linda: Committee Report: Expect no changes with the museum next year The committee does not want to leave the museum. Discussed having the Feb. and March meetings somewhere with better road access,

The Board selected Rebecca Ribis to be our liaison with Faith United Church of Christ (Maple & Hopkins) to arrange dates, times and cost.

8. Discussion of creating a Publicity Committee to get out notices of our events.

9. Betty expects a new memorandum of understanding will be signed soon.

10. Reminder: Guild meeting for October is the 13th

NB: Mary Carroll has agreed to be co-secretary with Lori for Lori's remaining one year term.

Sunshine & Shadow - by Linda Hunter

The guild sent a Get Well card to Sue Teetsel, who is healing from a broken femur. We hope you are doing much better each day, Sue.

Joanne Kelsch was in Scotland during the time that Queen Elizabeth II passed away and was able to see her casket while there.

Community Service by Theresa Utz

For our October community service block, we will be doing a friendship star for the troops in red, white and blue, With yellow/gold centers.

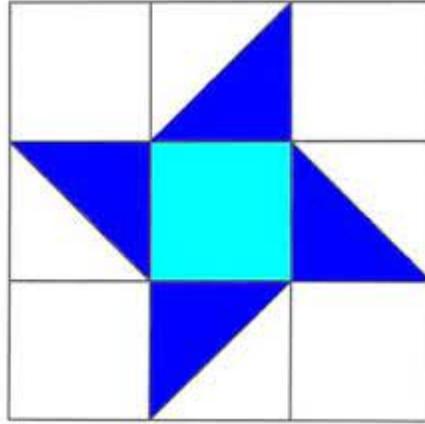

Use 4 1/2 inch squares for this pattern, 12 1/2 inches total Unfinished.

Use a yellow/gold Center Square.

A blue background, with a red star, and then make another square reversing the colors, making a red background with a blue star, 25 quilt bucks for each completed square .

If you're not sure how to make a friendship star block, here is a YouTube video - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EgFipe7KM_E
